Discover a Different Paris, Relax and Learn French in Contrexeville

> July 19th to July 29th Summer 2010

> > Brought to you by

Contrexeville a charming town, proud of its architecture, and full of romanticism. From the blue hues of its colonnades, to the golden color of the icons in the Orthodox chapel, the spirit of the place creates an appealing atmosphere.

Nature has been generous with this plain of the Vosges. The natural water that springs from the earth has qualities known since Roman times.

LIVING LANGUAGE TRAVEL and Doc'Langues invite you to enjoy the great outdoors and relaxing settings: 12 hectares of lake site.; ideal for fishing, walking, picnics or sports activities or just relaxing.

Around Contrexeville, 15,000 hectares of state-owned forest offer numerous hiking trails to explore the wealth of this heritage.

A few miles from Contrexeville, the legendary forest of Darney still harbours Celtic and Gallo-Roman ruins. You will experience truly idyllic moments in the hundred-year old oak woodland.

Program:

- 15 hours of French classes
- The classes are held in the morning after breakfast.
 The first day includes an evaluation to determine your level, establish learning objectives, and discuss the general course of the program
- The teaching method is based on communicational proficiency.
- You will have a learning partner from a different level to challenge you or to be challenged by you.
- You will work on a project: a short play or a short movie. (a camera is recommended)
- The outdoor activities will be related with the content of the course (riding a horse, vocabulary around horses and outdoor activities). Real documents: TV shows, broadcasts, newspaper articles will familiarize you with the language immersion.
- You will have the opportunity to integrate the language to sports, creativity and the exchange of your experiences during the day. You will learn more than the language with a reflection on the French culture and the way of thinking
- Emphasis will be placed on the pronunciation and intonation through drama exercises and the Silent Way Method.
- Cultural research will be proposed throughout the visits and with your contact with the historic monuments.

In the afternoon and weekend...

Different educational and cultural activities will be proposed by the instructor.

A visit to Nancy and its historical square, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and to Saint Jeanne of Arc' birthplace... In Paris discover places that are uncommon for tourists such as Montmartre, museum of arts et métiers, Beaubourg, restaurant Chartier...

Experience some of France natural resources, and combine language learning with a health program: spa, hot springs, drinkable water right from the source rich in calciferous and magnesium sulphated elements, (a dietetic menu can also be proposed by the hotel's restaurant in Contrexeville for no extra charge, and free access to the hotel's hot spring swimming pool) go hiking, swimming, bike riding, or just enjoy the beautiful natural scenery.
